

- 1) See attached spreadsheet
- 2) Indiana is an accredited state party
- 3) Indiana Law does not speak to parties without ballot access.

IC 3-8-3-1 * Written request to place name on ballot
* Sec. 1. (a) This section applies to candidates affiliated with a major political party of the state.

IC 3-8-3-11* * Delegates to national convention; support of candidate on first ballot * Sec. 11. A delegate or alternate delegate selected from a congressional district to the national convention of a political party shall, on the first ballot at the national convention, support the candidate for President of the United States who received the highest number of votes in the congressional district at the primary election if the person is in fact a candidate at the convention. A delegate-at-large or alternate delegate-at-large to the national convention is not required to support a specific candidate for President on any ballot at the convention. /As added by P.L.5-1986, SEC.4./

A)The Indiana Green Party does not have statewide ballot access. The deadline to petition for placement of our candidate on the ballot is noon on June 30, 2012. The deadline to file as a write in candidate is noon on July 3, 2012. Write-in candidates can withdraw from the ballot until noon, July 15, 2008. Indiana Green Party has notified the Stein Campaign of this requirement.

B) Indiana Green Party will support the presidential nominee of the PNC of the GPUS, as decided by the Coordinating Committee in 2008.

C) Indiana Green Party members may support any candidate; however they may not campaign as the Indiana Green Party for another party's candidate.

5) The Coordinating Committee unanimously approved Andrew Straw to represent Indiana at the 2012 Presidential Nominating convention.
/s Jay Parks, INGP Treasurer

6) I affirm that the Coordinating Committee did unanimously vote to support Andrew Straw as Indiana's delegate to the PNC.
/ Jay Parks, INGP Treasurer

7) The CAN-3 with all relevant info and signatures must be submitted by July 3 at noon to be a valid write-in candidate. The petition drive is unlikely to succeed for ballot access. Delegate, Andrew Straw, does plan on addressing the signature requirement via a legal challenge. CAN-3 is attached and has been sent to the Stein campaign.
